8-BALL RUMBLE SINGLES TITLES DECLARED

Women's Bronze Division Singles:

Ottawa's Charlene Hosein began the day winning her first match against Angie White, also from Ottawa. She then advanced to defeat Kim Brewer of Ottawa 3-2 and Sudbury's Angele Sauve 3-0 to qualify for the finals against fellow Ottawa player, Connie Fedorak.

On her road to the final, Fedorak suffered a loss in her opening match to Angele Sauve. Fedorak then went on a winning streak, defeating Jen Peterson, Pauline Lee, Kim Brewer and Laurie Jardine. In the semi final, Fedorak took revenge on third place finisher Sauve, defeating her 3 games to 1.

The championship final came down to 2 sets with Fedorak winning the first set. Hosein emerged the winner after defeating Fedorak in the second set.

Copper Division Singles:

It was an all North Bay final in the Copper Division as Claude Deschatelets and Wade Tomlinson faced off with Deschatelets only needing the first set to win 3-2. To get to the final, Deschatelets defeated Ottawa players Kevin Parnell, Dolly Tucker and Patty Proulx as well as North Bay's Jim Mallory.

Tomlinson opened the day with 3 wins before losing to Tucker 3-2. He then rebounded and won his next 2 outings. In the Semi Final he defeated third place finisher, Dolly Tucker 3 games to 2.

Bronze Division Singles:

Rob Vachon of Sault Ste. Marie had a great day at the pool tables winning six straight matches to advance to the final. Once in the final he continued his winning ways by defeating North Bay's Don Yeomans 3 games to 1 in the first set and the championship title in a field of 51 players

Yeomans had won five matches in row before running into Vachon in the quarter- final. Vachon knocked Yeomans to the losing side of the bracket with a 3-1 win. The semi final match up saw Yeomans defeat third place finisher Peter Komljenovic from Toronto in a close 3-2 match and earned him another shot at Vachon.

Silver Division Singles:

Derek Bedard of Toronto and Derrick Girard from North Bay battled it out in the finals of the Silver division. Bedard won five matches on his way to the finals and Girard's only loss was against Bedard in a close 4-2 game in the quarter finals, Girard then defeated Colin Kerr in the semi final to get another shot at Bedard.

Girard got revenge in the first set defeating Bedard 4-1. The second and deciding set went to Bedard, winning 4-3 and taking the title. Third place finisher was Colin Kerr from Toronto.
