MEDIA RELEASE

8-BALL RUMBLE TITLES DECLARED

Copper Division:

Nice Rack of Ottawa won four consecutive matches to earn a spot in the final against another Ottawa team, We Pick Pockets. The final match was decided in the first set with Nice Rack winning a close match by a score of 125 to 126.

To get a shot at the final, We Pick Pockets had to come through the back door after losing their opening match to 4 Play from North Bay. Once on the losers side of the bracket they rebounded and won 6 straight matches, completing the string of victories with a 116-94 win over third place finisher, 4 Butts/2 Shafts from North Bay.

Bronze Division:

There were 21 teams participating in the bronze division. Start The Bus from North Bay captured the title defeating Big Guns from Sault Ste. Marie in the final by a score of 139 to 106. To get to the final, Start The Bus won 4 in a row and made it 5 straight with the win in the first set of the final.

Big Guns earned the spot in the final after coming from the loser's side of the bracket. They won their first 3 matches then lost to Start The Bus. They then defeated third place finisher, What What Efran Do from Sault Ste. Marie in the semi final

This division is for the “top guns” of pool. To make it to the finals in this division the teams have to play well with few misses. North Bay’s Time To Shine did just that. On their way to victory they had five consecutive wins. Once in the final, they suffered their first loss of the tournament by Toronto’s 8-Ball Hunters 126-114. In a sudden death match, it came down to the final and deciding game with North Bay claiming the title with a 147 to 136 win.

8-Ball Hunters only loss before the finals came at the hands of Time To Shine in the quarterfinal. Once on the losers side of the bracket they defeated third place finisher Ball Movement from Sault Ste. Marie 128-83 to advance and have another shot at North Bay. It was an exciting final with both teams exchanging the lead at different times.

Copper Hard Luck Division:

The Copper Hard Luck Division title went to Last Minute Wonders who defeated North Bay’s It Ain’t Easy in the final, by a score of 126-124.

Bronze Hard Luck Division:

The Bronze Hard Luck Division was won by North Bay’s Freedom 55, defeating Hard Smucks from Ottawa 152-132 in the final.

Silver Hard Luck Division:

The Silver Hard Luck Division was won by 8-Ball Rumblers of North Bay defeating Sudbury’s Drifters in the final by a score of 138-118.
